Resolved, That while we should bow in submission to the dispensation of Providence, we deplore his loss and deeply regret that his untimely death has deprived us of a valued friend and the service of an efficient and accomplished officer, whose virtue and morality were worthy of the imitation of all.

STALLIONS.

ARABIAN STALLION FOR SALE.—THE PURE Arabian Horse SAID is for sale on reasonable terms as his present owner has no use for him. To breeders he will be a most valuable acquisition. The following pedigree gives the purity of his blood, with other interesting facts relating to his career:—
SAID (also spelled Sayed), as given by the groom of Nubar Pasha, Minister to France from Egypt, was foaled on the 27th of March, 1863, at the stables of Nubar Pasha. His sire was the famous Khorassan, the property of Abdul Medjid. Said's dam was Golan, the property of Nubar Pasha, and is the descendant of the celebrated Janizear, which leaped the citadel walls with the last Mameluke Bey when fleeing from Mahomed Ali in 1819. Therefore, Said is a cross between the Nedjid breed on the mother's side and the Anasseh breed on the side of Khorassan.
This grand Arab stallion exhibited wonderful powers of endurance and speed in the Abyssinian war, being ridden constantly by an officer during that campaign.
For further particulars apply to Mr. FOSTER, at the office of Wilkes' Spirit of the Times.

HARVEY FISK. A. S. HATCH.
OFFICE OF FISK & HATCH,
Bankers and Dealers in Government Securities,
No. 5 NASSAU STREET, NEW YORK,
Feb. 15, 1870.

The remarkable success which attended our negotiation of the loans of the Central Pacific Railroad Company and the Western Pacific Railroad Company, and the popularity and credit which these loans have maintained in the markets both in this country and Europe, during and since their original negotiation, have confirmed us in the following views, heretofore entertained and expressed, viz.:—

First—That the rapid absorption of our national securities by purchases for the Sinking Fund and for shipment to Europe, and the consequent release of invested capital, together with new accumulations of wealth among the people, demanded other forms of investment combining the necessary elements of safety and reasonable income.

Second—That this class of capital, habituated to the sense of absolute security with which it had reposed in government bonds, would not, to any great extent, encounter the risks of business or speculation, but would only seek investment in substantial and solid securities.

Third—That the first mortgage bonds of wisely located and honorably managed railroads would be promptly recognized and readily taken as the most suitable, safe, and advantageous form of investment, yielding a more liberal income than can hereafter be derived from government bonds, and available to take their place.

Fourth—That the careful judgment and thorough scrutiny with which we have sought to make selections of loans calculated to meet the wants and command the confidence of the large circle of intelligent and prudent investors, capitalists, trustees, institutions, &c., with which our business in government securities has placed us in communication, are justified and approved, and the fidelity and good faith with which we endeavor to study their interests are recognized and accepted.

Profoundly impressed from the beginning with the responsibility assumed in the recommendation of loans and with the sacredness of the trust we accept when we invite the public confidence to the results of our researches and to our professional judgment and integrity, it is with peculiar satisfaction that we see the loans hitherto recommended and negotiated by us and the roads upon which they are secured, vindicating our judgment and more than realizing our largest expectations.

Assured that, in the selection and negotiation of superior railroad loans, we are meeting a great public want and rendering a valuable service, both to the holders of capital and to those great national works of internal improvement whose intrinsic merit and substantial character entitle them to the use of capital and the confidence of investors, we now offer with special confidence and satisfaction the

FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS OF THE
CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO RAILROAD COMPANY.

The Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad, connecting the Atlantic coast and the magnificent harbors of the Chesapeake Bay with the Ohio river at a point of reliable navigation, and thus, with the entire railroad system and water transportation of the great West and Southwest, affords the additional East and West Trunk line, so imperatively demanded for the accommodation of the immense and rapidly growing transportation between the Atlantic seaboard and Europe on the one hand, and the great producing regions of the Ohio and Mississippi valleys on the other.

The increasing demand for the manufactured products of the Eastern States and of Europe by the growing and prosperous population of the West, and the multiplying products of the West seeking consumption in the Atlantic States and Europe, are resulting in an interchanging traffic and transportation whose magnitude surprises us even now, and of the future dimensions of which we can scarcely form a conception.

The importance of this road, therefore, as a new outlet from the West to the sea, magnifies it into one of national consequence, and insures to it an extensive through traffic from the day of its completion; while, in the development of the extensive agricultural and mineral resources of Virginia and West Virginia, it possesses along its own line the elements of a large and profitable local business.

The wealth that lies buried under innumerable acres of our vast territory, or springs from its bosom, is comparatively inert and useless until the whistle of the locomotive awakens it from the repose or waste of centuries into activity and value.

Thus the Kanawha coal fields of West Virginia, though known to be very rich in abundance, quality and varieties, have heretofore been practically idle and unavailable from lack of railroad facilities.

Varieties there exist which are not found elsewhere in this country, except in comparatively insignificant quantities and remote from market.

Splint coal, of rare quality and of peculiar value for the manufacture of iron, is there found in great abundance, together with superior Cannel Coal, equal to the best Scotch or Welsh, which, by the opening of this road, can be placed in our principal markets at less than half the cost at which it is now imported from abroad.

It is believed that the coal of West Virginia alone would enrich any means of communication which should afford it access to market, even if much more difficult and costly than that which is now being provided.

One hundred miles east of this coal region are the celebrated iron ores of Virginia, and within one hundred miles west and northwest, on and near the line of the road, those of West Virginia and Ohio. All of these need the splint coal of the Kanawha, which is the only known substitute for charcoal in the manufacture of the best class of pig iron. It is well known that the enormous consumption of charcoal for this purpose is exhausting the forests in the vicinity of active iron furnaces, and that an available substitute is of vital importance.

To bring together, by a hundred miles of rails, each way, these deposits of superior quality and value, needing each other for their development; to make available in the Western markets, for domestic and manufacturing uses, a constant supply of superior Coal, for which they are now dependent, in great measure, upon the uncertain navigation of the upper portion of the Ohio river; to open the agricultural, grazing and timber lands of both States to immigration and market; to connect the unequaled harbor facilities of the Chesapeake Bay with the Ohio river, by a line shorter and of easier grades than is afforded by any other route across the Alleghanies; and thus to become the great artery through which shall pass the new life of regenerate Virginia, and a swelling stream of the interchanging products of the West and the East—is a mission which gives to the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad the surest guarantee of success and value, and renders it the most important and substantial railroad enterprise now in progress in this country.

The restoration of Virginia to the Union, the opening of her rich and cheap lands to immigration and free labor, and the application of Northern capital and enterprise to her works of internal improvement and to the development of her minerals, mark a new era in her history, and bring her into the family of progressive States.

The superiority of the Virginia route across the Alleghanies, and the promise of an immense and profitable trade awaiting the completion of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad to the Ohio river, have drawn to it the attention and co-operation of prominent capitalists and railroad men of this city, of sound judgment and known integrity. Their connection with it, together with that of eminent citizens of Virginia and West Virginia, insures an energetic, honorable and successful management.

The road is completed and in operation from Richmond to the celebrated White Sulphur Springs of West Virginia, 227 miles, and there remain but 200 miles (now partially constructed) to be completed, to carry it to the proposed terminus on the Ohio river at or near the mouth of the Big Sandy river, 150 miles above Cincinnati and 350 miles below Pittsburg.

At this point the boundaries of the three States of Ohio, West Virginia and Kentucky touch each other; and it is unusually favorable for a centre of connecting and diverging railroads.

Lines are now projected or in progress through Ohio and Kentucky to this point, which will connect the Chesapeake and Ohio with the entire railroad systems of the West and Southwest and with the Pacific Railroad.

Its valuable franchises and superior advantages will place the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Company among the richest and most powerful and trustworthy corporations of the country; and with a present value in completed road and work done equal to the entire amount of the mortgage, we feel assured that the loan will be welcomed by capitalists and investors with the same confidence with which it has inspired us.

The details of the loan and the preparation of the bonds have been matured under our own supervision, and arranged with special reference to the wants of all classes of investors, combining the various features of convenience, safety and protection against loss or fraud.

They will be in denominations of $1,000, $500, $100.

They will be issued as coupon bonds, payable to bearer, and may be held in that form; or

The principal may be registered in the name of the owner on the books of the company, with the coupons remaining payable to bearer attached; or

The coupons may be detached and cancelled, the bond made a regular registered bond, substantially like those of the United States, and the interest made payable only to the registered owner or his attorney.

When registered by the first of these methods the principal of the bond will be transferable only on the books of the company by the registered owner or his attorney, but the interest will be paid to the bearer of the coupons on presentation, as is usual in case of coupon bonds. The bond may again be made payable to bearer by a registered owner, if desired, by an assignment to that effect on the books of the company.

When registered by the second method the bond will become a permanent registered bond, transferable only from one registered owner to another, and the interest will be paid at the office or agency of the company to the proper owner in person or by attorney.

The three classes will be known respectively as:—

1st. "Coupon Bonds payable to Bearer."

2d. "Registered Bonds with Coupons attached."

3d. "Registered Bonds with Coupons detached," and should be so designated by correspondents in specifying the class of Bonds desired.

They have thirty years to run from January 15, 1870, with interest at six per cent per annum from November 1, 1869. Principal and interest payable in gold in the city of New York.

The interest is payable in May and November, that it may take the place of that of the earlier issues of Five-Twenties, and suit the convenience of our friends who already hold Central and Western Pacific Bonds, with interest payable in January and July, and who may desire, in making additional investments, to have their interest receivable at different seasons of the year.

The amount of the Loan is $15,000,000. It is secured by a mortgage upon the entire line of railroad from Richmond to the Ohio river, with the equipment and all other property and appurtenances connected therewith.

A sinking fund of $100,000 per annum is provided for the redemption of the Bonds, to take effect one year after the completion of the road.

This mortgage constitutes the only lien upon any portion of the road with the exception of $1,653,757 in miscellaneous outstanding bonds upon portions of the old Virginia Central Railroad, which now forms a part of the Chesapeake and Ohio; and a small indebtedness to the State, for the payment of which provision has already been made in Virginia State bonds.

For the purpose of retiring the above outstanding bonds of the Virginia Central Railroad Company, $2,000,000 of the new loan will be reserved and held in trust, so that the present mortgage of $15,000,000 will cover the entire debt of the company.

Of the remaining $13,000,000, a sufficient amount will be sold to complete the road to the Ohio river, perfect and improve the portion now in operation and thoroughly equip the whole for a large and active traffic.

The present price is 90 and accrued interest.

A loan so amply secured, so carefully guarded and so certain hereafter to command a prominent place among the favorite securities in the markets, both of this country and Europe, will be at once appreciated and quickly absorbed.

Very respectfully,

FISK & HATCH,
Bankers.

P. S.—We have large pamphlets containing full particulars, statistical details, maps, &c., which, with copies of the mortgage, will be furnished upon application.

AIR LINE BONDS.
CONNECTICUT INVESTORS
will find the First Mortgage bonds of the New Haven, Middletown and Willimantic Railroad Company the most desirable form of investment now offered in the market.

The Bonds are exempt from every form of State or local taxation and from the United States income tax.

The average saving thus made will amount to two and one-half per cent, which, added to the interest received, makes them equal to a bond paying nine and one-half per cent, and this rate of income is not affected by a decline in gold.

The bonds are issued only as the work progresses, and for but one-half of the actual cash expenditures on the road. They are secured by a first mortgage on all the property of the company, of whatever kind. The State of Connecticut is made trustee for the bondholders, and every bond must be issued from the office of and be countersigned by the Comptroller. They are issued in denominations of $500 and $1,000, are coupon or registered, have twenty years to run, and are payable, principal and interest, in New York. The bonds are offered at par and interest.

THE DARIEN EXPEDITION, headed by the steamer Nipsic, arrived at Aspinwall on the 9th of February.

PIECEMEAL LEGISLATION.—A proposition to furnish equivalents in money for legs, arms, eyes, &c., lost by soldiers in the war, was discussed in the Senate yesterday.

VENEZUELAN NEWS.—The revolutionists are pushing ahead in Venezuela according to recent accounts from there. Several battles are reported to have resulted in victories for the rebels. Owing to the disturbed state of the country business is paralyzed and the crops are backward.

THE EXCISE BILL was under discussion in the State Senate yesterday. A test vote disclosed that the parties are fairly ranged against one another, and the "boys" may rest satisfied that they will have free liquor after awhile, although their party representatives are very slow about it.

THE PRIVILEGES OF MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATURE.—Judge Potter, who was arraigned with two officials of his court before the bar of the lower house of the Legislature yesterday for detaining a member by a civil process, was discharged after a hearing yesterday. The whole Assembly appeared to be uncertain of the premises, and, disliking to ask advice from the fountainhead of legal knowledge, concluded to be on the safe side.

A MYSTERIOUS CASE.—The attempt to murder Mr. Eaton the other night, within view of his own house, has a bad appearance. Plunder was not the object, neither was ordinary personal malice. There was no chance medley, but the crime was committed on a deliberate plan made by persons familiar with the gentleman's habits. As there has been given public indication that this man was looked upon with bitter dislike because he was counsel in some cases against the Erie management, people may naturally wonder whether this is the latest way of serving injunctions.

MR. BERGH'S APPEAL.—The Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals is likely to go out of existence with the abrogation of the humane law under which it acted. This is a thing that the public generally will regret, for there was always some satisfaction to the thought in the knowledge that it was possible to forcibly restrain and even punish the cruelty to animals that offends the sensibilities of every community. But whose fault is it that we are likely to lose this law? It is Mr. Bergh's fault. His ill-judged zeal made humanity look very like a nuisance. Quixote, in his misapplication of excellent principles, seemed to be this gentleman's prototype, for he made the same mistake. It is in mere coarse, vulgar spleen and spite that the effort to abrogate the law is now made in Albany, and such a motive could hardly hold up its head even there if Mr. Bergh had not himself put a great many people out of patience with the statute.

The Democratic Problem at Albany—Harmony and Success or Divisions and Defeat.

The democratic party in our present Legislature, with every incentive to union and harmony, is threatened with divisions and defeat. For example, upon Mr. Frear's new Charter bill for this city two or three Senators from this quarter and one or two from the interior appear to wish it to be understood that if put to the alternative of yea or nay on this bill they will "smash the machine." The worst of it is, in a party view, that by joining the republicans it is within the power of three or four democratic Senators to throw to the winds all the fruits of the last November election and to turn over the State again into the hands of the republicans next fall. This, should it come to pass, will be a small matter in the judgment of independent men, who have lost all faith in the wirepullers of both parties; but to the people of this city, overtaxed and burdened as they have been, as they are and will continue to be under our present incongruous and irresponsible city government, the paramount question is this question of a new Charter, endangered by these democratic mutineers.

A new Charter upon the popular idea of municipal rights, restoring to the city the right, the duty and the responsibility of administering its local affairs, without the existing drawbacks and complications of State commissions, boards and bureaus, is what we have been promised from this democratic Legislature, and is what this community expects and demands. And what is there so monstrous in Mr. Frear's bill that, rather than support it there are certain democratic Senators who would see this great object of a new Charter defeated and the party broken to pieces and reduced to public contempt and derision? Cannot the bill be amended so as to remove all reasonable objections, even in reference to the power of the Supervisors and the term of the Aldermen? It can be. Unfortunately, however, the objections to the bill are but a pretext for mutiny against the established central organization of the party in this city.

Does any one conversant at all with the party ropes and wires behind the scenes suppose that Senators Genet and Norton, in their opposition to Frear's bill, are inspired solely by patriotic considerations? No; they are like other public men, planning to turn affairs of State to their own advantage. They are thus co-operating with an active clique of ambitious outside politicians, who are simply aiming to supersede the central authority of Tammany Hall, or "the ring," if you please, of which Messrs. Sweeny, Hall, Tweed and others are the recognized head sachems. In opposition to this central junta, to which the democracy are indebted for their present Governor and Legislature, the active rival clique referred to has entered the field at Albany. Mr. Samuel J. Tilden, a venerable Bourbon, turned up again, is the chief engineer of this clique; its special organ is the copperhead newspaper which sounded the trumpet blast of retreat to the astonished democracy on the eve of the last Presidential battle, and its sappers and miners are drawn from the dainty turtle soup gourmands of the Manhattan Club and the "bloated bondholders" of our democratic aristocracy; and yet they are, strange as it may appear, backed by the chief of a corps of roughs and repeaters.

Genet, Norton and the one or two others inclined to drift in the same direction in the State Senate may have no higher aspirations than a mere shuffle, cut and deal for the enormous masses of spoils and plunder of this rich island, awaiting a new division; but the chiefs of the cliques behind them are scheming for the higher game of the general control of the State councils of their party, looking to the next Congress, the next vacancy in the national Senate, the next Presidency, and the probabilities and possibilities of the next democratic Cabinet. Hence the hitch upon the new Charter. Mr. Tilden's bill, in his judgment, no doubt, was the very thing required for the city; but the majority of the party in the Legislature have thought otherwise, and so Mr. Tilden and his clique and their organ are roused into patriotic wrath against "the thieves of the ring"—the old story of the kettle calling the pot black.

All this would be very amusing but for the fact that if we can have no agreement among these belligerent politicians on the Charter we shall have no new Charter, and so, in a looser and more slipshod way than ever, the local taxes drawn from this community and the spoliations from the city treasury will still increase. The public plunderers will say, when no man can be held responsible why should any man hesitate with the chance to steal all that he can? Now if there is any honesty in the patriotic professions of these Albany mutineers they will agree upon something in the form of a new Charter, and as we have a meeting of the Legislature every winter it is not necessary to be very particular about secondary details. The failure to give us a Charter under which the city will govern itself will involve such discords and squabbles in the party camp as to change the vote of the State in the next election.

The paltry squabble between the "hards" and "softs" over the spoils of the Custom House in 1853 split the party into two hostile factions in the next election, whereby they lost the State. Nor was it ever fully recovered from that day until last November, and then it was recovered upon a vote two hundred thousand short of the poll of 1868—a very clear case of popular indifference as to the result. We see, indeed, in these disaffections at Albany something of the same symptoms that culminated in the national break-up of the party at the Charleston Convention. The trouble which led to that collapse first broadly developed itself in New York in the "free soil" bolt of Martin Van Buren in 1848 against the regular democratic nomination of General Cass, and in the setting up of Van Buren as the independent "free soil" candidate—a bolt which, in dividing the New York democracy, gave the State to the whigs, which elected General Taylor President. The history of the ups and downs of the New York democracy is full of such warnings.

The reserved popular vote of two hundred thousand in the election of last November is another warning to them that that unexpected success was but an accident. They must hold together now, the factionists must respect the will of the majority, the party must do the work before it, or the election of next November may be the beginning of the end of the whole concern. Above all, touching the question of a new Charter, the authorized party junta of this city, to which the party owes the recovery of the State, and without which the State is lost, must be respected by this Legislature. If not, the State and the party are gone, and the mutineers, like the over-greedy dog in the fable, in grasping at the shadow will lose the beef now in their possession.

Spanish Barbarities in Cuba—The Shameful Indifference of Our Government.

The remains of Greenwalth, the victim of Spanish barbarity at Havana, were interred here yesterday. Though the friends of the unfortunate man, and those of his colleagues who still remain in Cuba with his employers, used every means to prevent any demonstration, there was nevertheless a deep-seated feeling of indignation in the public mind. Wherever the matter was spoken of the Spaniards were execrated, and shame was felt at the pusillanimous conduct of our government for its indifference to the many outrages upon Americans in Cuba. If Greenwalth was not an American citizen he was a resident here, and left this city for Havana but a few weeks ago. But his companions, who were brutally wounded, were American citizens. This case of barbarity, however, was only one of many upon our citizens by the Spaniards in Cuba. We have had authentic accounts of many before. It is because the government at Washington has failed to notice those previously that this occurred. Had reparation been demanded in previous cases, and protection to our citizens been insisted upon, we should not have heard of the brutal outrages on Greenwalth and his companions. Our Consuls in Cuba and our navy in its waters might just as well be at home. They are utterly useless there. Well may the Spaniards despise us and laugh at the idea of the United States venturing to go to war with Spain. The most contemptible nation in the world would not suffer the indignities this republic has borne. Any little State would give better protection to its citizens. How has this mighty country fallen under the cowardly men who now rule at Washington!

Think of our degradation when the friends of poor Greenwalth and the other victims of Spanish barbarity implore the people here to make no demonstration of indignation for fear of the consequences to those Americans who still remain in Cuba! We must not give vent to our feelings for fear the brutal volunteers might murder the Americans that are left in Havana and other parts of the island! American merchants in Cuba, as we are well informed, dare not send letters in their packages of correspondence for Cubans or for those who might be suspected of sympathizing with the Cuban cause. Such is the reign of terror under the volunteers. The so-called Spanish government in the island is powerless and the mere instrument of a bloody revolutionary faction. American citizens are compelled for self-protection to deny their country and to hail as Englishmen or as other foreigners. We have no doubt that in this last case of barbarity our weak and timid Secretary of State will accept the hollow apologies and misrepresentations of Spanish officials, and that those same officials, contemptuously laughing at the imbecility of our government, will neither punish the criminals nor prevent similar outrages in the future. In all matters relative to Cuba and to what is occurring in that island now the government of this great country has made itself contemptible. The republic is disgraced in the eyes of the world. Every true American must feel the shame of such humiliation.

Mr. Banks' Cuban Resolution.

In the House yesterday a resolution was introduced by Mr. Banks providing for a strict impartiality in enforcing the neutrality laws of the country and suspending the statutes punishing violations of the neutrality acts so far as they relate to the conflict now going on between Cuba and Spain. The resolution was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs, of which Mr. Banks is chairman, and will probably be reported soon, and quite likely will be passed, at least in the House.

The resolution will do a little better than a tub for a whale. It does not compass the question, but it is a little step towards the right. It says that as we have given thirty gunboats to Spain, we will, for a consideration, give as many to Cuba. If we have heretofore done anything to aid Spain, we are willing to do as much for the struggling colonists. Having bolstered up the failing fortunes of the imbecile old kingdom with our gunboats, our diplomacy, our protection and our oppression of her weak enemies, we now offer, in a generous way, to do all those things for the unhappy colony. Having knocked down and robbed our neighbor we propose to offer him our sympathy. This is the measure of the resolution reported by Mr. Banks, and such is the desperate strait to which the action of the administration has driven the true friends of Cuban independence that they will hail even such a resolution with delight. It does at least unbind the hands of Cuba, and gives her from this time forward a guarantee that she will not again be fettered in the race in which we gave Spain such a long start. But we had expected better things from General Banks, and still expect better things from him. Let us have no milk and water resolutions in a crisis like this of Cuba, which pleads to us even with the voices of our own murdered citizens. Let us no longer show ourselves to be the great Snob among nations, bowing as republics only bow to the haughtier prestige of nobility and blood.

ANOTHER MURDER is upon us, replete with all the horrible accessories that seem to have become a peculiarity of metropolitan homicides. A man returns to his home in Forty-first street after three years' absence, having found out in the meantime that his wife has been unfaithful, and entering her room shoots her twice in the head. Another man, who is said to have been her paramour, was in the room at the time, but the murderer did not know who he was or, as he stated, he would have killed him too.

British Politics—Gladstone and His Land Tenure Bill.

We have already commented upon the speech of Mr. Gladstone on the introduction of his second grand bill for the settlement of Ireland and Ireland's troubles. Last year Mr. Gladstone did great work. He broke down—he did more, he made an end of—the biggest grievance of which Ireland had any cause to complain. We speak of the Irish Church Establishment. Now Mr. Gladstone, with Ireland as rebellious as ever, undertakes another reform. It is our opinion that Mr. Gladstone will carry through this second great reform with as much ease as he carried through the last. But will he please Ireland? If he does not, he should. What more can any Parliament do than do justice? This it aims at and this it will do. But if Ireland is radically opposed to the British government what is the use of talking about reform? In the estimation of all honest souls the bill now submitted by Mr. Gladstone ought to make an end of all Irish trouble. If it does not, who is to blame? So far as we can see, the Irish in Ireland should settle all this English-Irish trouble by a complete exodus. Ireland in America would be happy. The Irish in Ireland cannot and they will not be pacified. We can only say "Come."

THE CUBAN-AMERICAN LEAGUE.

The third meeting of the Cuban League of the United States was held last night at Delmonico's, General McMahon presiding. Among those present were Generals Granger, Graham, Hayes, Blair, Davies, Avery, Van Alen and Darling; Colonels Lamson and Raymond, Hon. Cassius M. Clay and other distinguished gentlemen. The business transacted related principally to the perfection of the organization and the distribution of circulars for the purpose of convening mass meetings to be held simultaneously in the principal cities of the Union. Arrangements were also made for distribution throughout the country of petitions to be signed by citizens asking Congress to recognize the belligerent rights of Cuba. A letter was received from Señor Miguel de Aldama, President of the Cuban Junta, thanking the league for its efforts and enclosing a check for $500. The Finance Committee reported that subscriptions to the amount of $600 had been paid in, and after the transaction of certain private business the meeting adjourned until next Tuesday night. All parties desiring information respecting the league with the object of participating in this movement are directed to communicate with the President, General M. T. McMahon, at No. 218 Broadway.

THE FUNERAL OF GREENWALTH.

A Large Crowd in Attendance but No Demonstration.

The funeral of Isaac Greenwalth, whose remains were brought to New York on Tuesday by the steamer Bienville from Havana, where the deceased was brutally assassinated by Spanish volunteers, took place yesterday morning at 311 Bowery. A large crowd of spectators assembled in front of the building, but no demonstrations of any kind were made. The family of the deceased, composed of his wife and several children, who reside at No. 308 Stanton street, arrived there a few minutes after the hour appointed, when the procession formed, the religious services, according to the Jewish faith, being deferred until the coffin reached Bay Side Cemetery, where it was to be interred. Mr. Williams, sexton of St. Thomas' church, received the body from the steamer and conducted the ceremonies consequent upon its burial, in behalf of Lanman & Kemp, who bore the entire expenses. The procession was composed of fifteen carriages and about 300 men, the most of them members of the following lodges, to which order deceased belonged, to wit:—Jefferson, No. 3, I. O. M. A.; Grand Lodge, I. O. M. A.; Ara, No. 1, Asher, No. 2, Samuel, No. 3, Jonathan, No. 4 and Emanuel, No. 5, O. U. M.

"THE MAJESTY OF THE LAW."

Judge Scott "Interviewed" by a Friend—Didn't Like to Commit Him and Didn't Do It—Why Didn't He?

About four o'clock yesterday afternoon a "diamond dealer" or "jewelry" broker, known as "Al" Oakley, entered Essex Market Police Court, evidently under the influence of liquor. There was a large crowd present and Oakley began talking to some of the prisoners, upon which the court officer Willard called him to order. Oakley abused Willard and swore at him. The officer asked Judge Scott whether he should arraign a drunken and disorderly man, who was present. The Judge drawled out mechanically, without raising his eyes, "Ye-es." Willard collared Oakley. Oakley struggled and kicked up a terrible row. Several other officers assisted Willard. The Judge for the first time looked up and said, reprovingly, "Willard, Willard."

Oakley was pulled up to the bench and the Judge remonstrated with him very kindly. Oakley burst into a tirade of abuse and "G—d d——d" the Judge. The Judge told Oakley to keep still or he'd "have to commit him." Oakley said he'd "be d——d" if the Judge would commit him, he "didn't dare to commit him," &c.

The Judge again talked blandly, and conciliated the violent rough by getting his friend Walters, the East Broadway auctioneer, to take him away. Oakley got Walters to come back and apologize to the Judge. Some people couldn't do what Oakley did.

Gentry, Brevet Lieutenant Colonel, to Nineteenth infantry, company C; Captain William M. Wherry, Brevet Colonel on General Schofield's staff, to Sixth infantry, company C; Captain Charles A. Whittier, to Nineteenth infantry, company A; Captain Thomas E. Rose, Brevet Colonel, to Sixteenth infantry, company C; Captain James McNierlaw, now on duty at the Military Academy, transferred to Eleventh infantry.

NAVAL INTELLIGENCE.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16, 1870.

The complement of men for the navy allowed by law—viz., 8,500—having been reached, the department has directed that enlistments shall cease. The effect of this order will be to detain the Colorado, which is destined to relieve the Delaware on the Asiatic station, and to keep the men attached to the latter vessel over the term of their enlistment, for which they will receive one-fourth additional pay. The department has urged upon Congress the necessity of allowing an additional number of men to meet this contingency, but no action has been taken, and hence the Congress, the Colorado and other vessels cannot sail. In any emergency that might arise the department is powerless to supply a single vessel to meet it.

MYSTERIOUS CASE OF POISONING IN CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, Feb. 16, 1870.

A Holland family named Bankema, residing at 41 Lake street, consisting of a husband, wife and two children, were last night poisoned in some mysterious manner. It is supposed the poison was contained in some mush which was found standing on the stove. When discovered the wife and one child were dead, and it is probable that the other child will die. The man will recover. The case will be investigated to-night.

WASHINGTON.

General Banks' Resolutions on Cuban Neutrality Introduced in the House.

The New York Contested Election Case—General Van Wyck Admitted to His Seat—Sales of Cadetships—Numerous Cases Before the Committee.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16, 1870.

General Banks' Resolutions Enforcing Neutrality in Cuban Affairs.

General Banks introduced in the House to-day for reference to the Committee on Foreign Affairs, of which he is chairman, resolutions similar in character to that which I referred to in my despatch day before yesterday in relation to Cuba. The resolutions do not go as far in words as was contemplated by General Banks at the time I sent you that despatch, but their effects, when analyzed, seem to be the same. Instead of authorizing, in so many words, the President to issue a proclamation of neutrality as was first designed, the President may declare and maintain a strictly impartial neutrality, which is considered to mean the same as if the President had been directed to issue a proclamation. To-morrow General Banks will bring his resolution before the committee, and if he can get them to endorse it will report it back to the House and press its passage forthwith.

Conclusion of the Busteed Case.

The House Committee on the Judiciary took definite action to-day on the case of Judge Busteed, of the District Court of Alabama. The charges against him, preferred by Henry C. Sample, were five in number, with seventeen specifications. All voted "no" on fourteen of them, and on the remaining three only Messrs. Eldridge and Kerr voted to sustain them. On Robert H. Smith's charges and specifications, twenty in number, there was a unanimous vote against them. The committee therefore resolved there was no evidence to require or justify impeachment, and so report to the House and ask to be discharged from further consideration of the subject. The case has been pending about two years and much evidence has been taken concerning it. Judge Busteed is now in Washington.

Guests at the President's State Dinner.

The following named guests were present at the state dinner at the Executive Mansion this evening:—At one end of the table were Mrs. Ketcham, Mr. Lash and Mr. Packer, and at the other Mr. Jesse R. Grant, Mr. Roots and Mr. Stokes. On one side of the table were Mr. Sargent, Mrs. Schofield, Mr. C. C. Washburn, Mr. Schenck, Mrs. Cragin, Senator Tipton, Senator Ramsey, Mrs. Grant, Senator Harlan, Mrs. Tipton, Senator Boreman, Lieutenant General Sherman, Mrs. Sargent, Mr. Schofield, Mr. McCarthy. On the other side of the table were Mrs. McCarthy, Mr. van Auken, Mr. Stevenson, Mrs. B. F. Butler, Senator Morrill, Senator Buckingham, Mrs. Harlan, the President, Mrs. Morrill, Senator Cragin, Mr. B. F. Butler, Mrs. Van Auken, Mr. Williams, Mr. Ketcham, Mrs. Stevenson.

The postage chargeable upon correspondence posted in the United States and addressed to Peru, Bolivia, Ecuador and Chile, respectively, has been reduced to the following amounts, prepayment compulsory, to take effect immediately—viz., on letters, twenty-two cents per each half ounce or under; on newspapers, four cents each if not exceeding four ounces, and four cents additional for every excess of four ounces, and on books, packets and samples of merchandise, ten cents per each four ounces or fraction thereof.

Meeting of the National Council of the Union League.

The National Executive Committee of the Union League of America met in this city at noon to-day at Willard's Hotel. A committee made a report favoring a radical change in the ritual of the order; in fact, wiping out the whole Union League as it now exists and building up of a new fraternity. On motion ex-Governor William A. Newell, of New Jersey, was unanimously elected chairman for the year. The National Council (the parent body) met at three o'clock this afternoon. The Business Committee reported a series of resolutions congratulating the country for the success of the fifteenth amendment, insisting on a practical exercise of equal rights, and the following, which was received with tremendous applause:—

Resolved, That the National Council of the Union League of America deeply sympathize with the struggling patriots of Cuba in the war in which for more than a year they have struggled to throw off the yoke of Spanish despotism and to secure for themselves the boon of liberty and independence; that in view of the heroism, fortitude and perseverance with which they have prosecuted the war against the power of the Spanish government, and because they have further testified their devotion to liberty by the abolition of slavery throughout the island; therefore

Resolved, That we respectfully urge upon Congress to recognize the belligerent rights of Cuba as soon as they shall have shown themselves to have established a permanent government.

The Councils throughout the country were then instructed to appropriately celebrate the ratification of the Fifteenth amendment. The National Council then adjourned until December.

Pacific Railroad Subsidies.

In reply to a resolution of the Senate, the President has transmitted to that body a copy of a letter addressed to him on the 27th ult. by the Secretary of the Interior touching the action of the department on the claim of the Central branch of the Union Pacific Railroad Company to receive lands and bonds from the United States in aid of the construction of its road. The Secretary says the application is complicated by the fact that the company had presented a similar one to his predecessor before the completion of the hundred miles of the road which the company was assigned to build and for which the original subsidy had been granted. Both the Attorney General and the Secretary of the Interior are of the opinion that if the legislation of 1866 had not been adopted, by which the Union Pacific Railroad Company, Eastern Division, was authorized to change its route, and under which the route was actually changed from the valley of the Republican Fork to that of Smoky Hill, the Central branch would, upon reaching the original point of contemplated junction in the Republican Valley, have been entitled to proceed to construct a road up that valley if the Eastern Division had failed to meet them there, and would have been entitled to the benefits of section sixteen, of the act of July, 2, 1861.

Sales of Cadetships—Damaging Testimony Against an Ex-Member—Carpet-Baggers Monopolizing the Business.

The Military Committee of the House continued to-day the investigation of the subject of improper disposition of cadetships. The principal case examined to-day was that of S. Newton Pettis, late member of Congress from the Twentieth Pennsylvania district. Three witnesses were examined, namely, Major Bloss, editor of the Titusville Herald; Mr. White and Mr. Derrickson, and their testimony, if true, is of a very damaging character. According to their evidence, when the nominating convention met in Franklin, and Mr. Pettis was chosen as the candidate, Major Bloss had an interview with Pettis and offered $500 to the latter on the condition that he would give the cadetship to which he was entitled to a son of Mr. Bishop, of Titusville, a man interested to some extent in the oil business. Mr. Pettis, they allege in their testimony, accepted the offer without any qualification, promising to make the appointment in case he should get elected. It seems that Major Bloss had been consulted on the subject by Mr. Bishop, Sr., before the meeting of the nominating convention was held, and had been instructed to make the offer not merely to Mr. Pettis, but to the person, whosoever it might be, who succeeded in obtaining the nomination. After concluding with Pettis Major Bloss went back to Titusville and reported progress to Mr. Bishop. Subsequently Mr. Pettis got elected, and the proposition was renewed. Mr. Pettis then explained that he had promised the cadetship to another party before Bloss' offer, and that so soon as he might succeed in putting off party number one he would conclude the bargain with party number two. The arrangement remained in suspense for some time, when at last Mr. Derrickson, a friend of Pettis, came to Mr. Bishop's friend, Major Bloss, and stated that he was authorized to close the bargain. Mr. Derrickson explained to Bloss that Pettis had borrowed $550 from him (Derrickson) for election purposes, and that Pettis was willing to give Bishop's son the cadetship if Bishop would pay $300 more than originally proposed, or $800 in all; at the same time Derrickson showed a note of Pettis' promising to pay Derrickson $850, and containing an endorsement by Pettis to the effect that—"The within note shall be cancelled when the money is paid by Mr. Bishop." Bloss accepted the proposition for Bishop to pay $800, and the bargain was closed. After the consummation of this arrangement it seems that Pettis was harassed by the first party to whom he had promised to give the cadetship, and finally to get rid of the thing he (Pettis) wrote to this party, number one, expressing regret that he could not keep his promise, and explaining that pecuniary embarrassments had obliged him to dispose of the appointment to Mr. Bishop. The writing of this injudicious letter is said to have been the cause of the discovery of the improper transaction. Party number one, being incensed at Pettis' going back on his word, showed the letter to some of his friends; the matter got talked about, and finally reached the ears of the people, who thought it their duty to communicate it to Congress. Now the witnesses examined to-day do not hesitate to state that they are not on friendly terms with Mr. Pettis, and it may be that they have been stimulated by hostility to the ex-member in making the above statements. I do not wish, therefore, to express the opinion that Mr. Pettis is guilty of the charges; I only give what I have heard was the testimony, without note or comment for or against the accused. The investigating committee find that the field of their investigations is daily becoming enlarged. Fresh cases are reported every day, and the probability seems to be that the labors of the committee will not soon reach a close. At present there are some ten cases reported—two or three from Louisiana, two from South Carolina, three or four from Pennsylvania, and the rest from other States. The carpet-baggers thus far seem to monopolize a lion's share of the traffic.

FORTY-FIRST CONGRESS.

Second Session.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16, 1870.

POSTAL TELEGRAPH.

Mr. SPENCER, (rep.) of Ala., presented resolutions of the Alabama Legislature in favor of the establishment of a national postal telegraph company, which was laid on the table.

BLOCK ISLAND HARBOR.

Mr. ANTHONY, (rep.) of R. I., presented resolutions of the Rhode Island Legislature for a harbor of refuge at Block Island, commanding the entrance to Long Island Sound. He said the improvement was demanded as a means of security to navigation, as intended to afford much needed facilities for the commerce of the whole country and as a necessary public defence. The resolutions were then referred to the Committee on Commerce.

THE MISSISSIPPI BILL.

The consideration of the Mississippi bill was resumed.

Mr. STEWART, (rep.) of Nev., made an argument to deny the constitutional power of Congress to impose unwarranted conditions upon Mississippi. In reply to a question by Mr. Edmunds Mr. Stewart said he did believe that the condition prohibiting any change of the constitution of Mississippi in the present provision for school rights and privileges for citizens of the United States was unconstitutional.

Mr. WILLEY, (rep.) of W. Va., said he opposed the conditions upon Virginia, but after they were imposed voted for the bill containing them. If the Senator from Vermont (Mr. Edmunds) and others acting with him thought there was an impropriety on the part of those who opposed the conditions upon Virginia as unconstitutional in afterwards voting for the bill, he (Mr. Willey) would relieve himself of any charge of inconsistency and stand fair upon the obligations of his official oath by moving the repeal of the action of the Senate in the matter. He therefore submitted an amendment to repeal so much of the Virginia act as declared the State admitted to representation upon certain fundamental conditions therein expressed.

Mr. MORTON, (rep.) of Ind., asked why, if the Senator desired to be consistent, he did not include all the States which were admitted on conditions.

Mr. WILLEY said the pledge of Congress had been given to admit the late rebellious States to representation upon their doing certain things. Mississippi and Virginia had complied with all these requirements, while the pending bill, in its very inception, declared Mississippi to have a republican government; therefore the conditions to make her government republican were superfluous.

Mr. EDMUNDS denied that Congress had ever entered into any bargain to reconstruct any State upon certain conditions. He proceeded to review the subject in detail. Referring to what were called admonitions and threatenings of popular storms, of which New England had been warned to take heed, he said that the principle upon which the institutions of that section was established could never be overthrown, and that the wisdom of her belief in the power of the government to preserve in peace what it had maintained in war would be vindicated in the future.

Mr. FOWLER, (rep.) of Tenn., then addressed the Senate against the power of Congress to impose the conditions.

The Senate at twenty minutes past five o'clock adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16, 1870.

ENCOURAGEMENT OF THE SHIPPING INTERESTS.

Mr. MAYNARD, (rep.) of Tenn., offered a resolution directing the special committee on American Navigation Interests to inquire into the expediency of granting a bounty on all iron built sea-going vessels constructed in this country during the next three years and from American material, equal to the duties which would have been imposed on such materials if imported. Adopted.

Indefinite leave of absence was granted to Mr. Morrissey, on account of continued ill-health in his family.

BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS.

Mr. BENNETT, (rep.) of N. Y., introduced a bill for the better protection of the Northern and Northwestern frontier. Referred.

Mr. MAYHEM, (dem.) of N. Y., introduced a resolution directing the Secretary of the Treasury to take into consideration the erection of suitable buildings at Albany, N. Y., for Post Office and United States courts. Adopted.

Mr. CULLOM, (rep.) of Ill., from the Committee on Territories, reported several bills regulating the jurisdiction of probate courts, the salaries of judges, &c., in the Territories. Passed.

Mr. CULLOM also reported the petition of citizens of Massachusetts that that State be remanded to a territorial condition on account of its "State rights" heresies in 1812, &c. (Laughter.) Referred to the Reconstruction Committee.

Mr. CULLOM, also from the same committee, reported back adversely a bill providing a Territorial government for Alaska. Laid on the table.

Mr. CULLOM, from the same committee, reported the bill to aid in the execution of the law in Utah so as to prevent and punish polygamy.

During the reading of the bill the morning hour expired and the bill went over till to-morrow.

The discussion was continued until half-past four, and the House then proceeded to vote on the resolutions. The resolution of the minority declaring Greene, the sitting member, entitled to the seat, was defeated 56 to 121, and the resolution of the majority giving the seat to Van Wyck, the contestant, was adopted—yeas 119, nays 51.

A motion to adjourn was then made on the democratic side, pending the swearing in of Mr. Van Wyck.

THE UNION LEAGUE RECEPTION.

The ladies' reception of the Union League Club last evening at the magnificent club rooms, corner of Madison avenue and Twenty-sixth street, was, in all probability, the most brilliant affair of the kind which has taken place in this city for years. The rooms of the club were beautifully illuminated and decorated and the art gallery was crammed full of the most exquisite paintings. After the formalities of the reception promenading and dancing was commenced in the theatre, and was kept up until the wee hours. Among the distinguished persons present were Horace Greeley, General Ingalls, John F. Kensett, F. B. Carpenter, William Orton, General Shaler, General Cabot Ward, A. T. Stewart, General Reeves, Major General Walker, Captain Clark, of West Point; William Cullen Bryant, Henry Clews, Richard Butler, General McDowell and several other army and navy officers. Election of United States Senators—Foster Blodgett Asks that His Certificate of Election be Withheld.

ATLANTA, Feb. 16, 1870.

The House and Senate met this morning at eleven o'clock. At twelve o'clock the Senate proceeded to the hall of the House of Representatives and organized a joint convention for the purpose of comparing the Senatorial vote. Upon adding up the vote of the joint convention the President of the Senate announced that Foster Blodgett, having received 115 votes, a majority, is declared elected United States Senator for the term of six years from March 4, 1871; Hon. H. P. Farrow, having received 109 votes, a majority, is declared elected United States Senator for the term ending March 4, 1873; Hon. Richard H. Whitely, having received 110 votes, is declared elected United States Senator for the term ending March 4, 1871.

Governor Bullock sent a message to the Legislature this morning making an elaborate argument establishing the fact that the act of Congress of December 22, and the previous reconstruction acts, do not render invalid any of the ordinary laws passed by the several Legislatures. All contracts entered into by the State or by corporations under the State authority are legal and binding. The Governor closes as follows:—

The impression which is sought to be created that local laws are invalidated, State bonds repudiated and corporations organized upon the basis of late legislation without legal foundation, is entirely groundless. Such impression is only created for the purpose of misleading the public mind and defeating the full effect and true intent of the purpose of the reconstruction acts. This argument seems to be superfluous in the face of the fact that Georgia bonds are salable at a higher rate than those of any other Southern State, and the bonds of the railroads which have been endorsed under the authority of the legislation of 1868 are selling at their full value.

Hon. Foster Blodgett this evening addressed a letter to the Governor, requesting him to withhold the certificate of his election as Senator. Mr. Blodgett explains his previous political course. Referring to that of having been indicted by his political opponents for the purpose of breaking down and destroying his influence, Mr. Blodgett closes his letter as follows:—

Although those who procured the indictment alluded to now confess that it was done for political effect, and it rests unsupported by any proof, yet it is there; and never, until it is withdrawn, or I have been triumphantly acquitted, can I, or will I, accept the position to which the honorable suffrages of my political friends have elevated me.

ARSON IN JERSEY.

Incendiarism on the Increase—Diabolical Attempts to Burn Down Houses in West Hoboken—A Man Nearly Suffocated—A Citizens' Committee of Safety.

Only a few nights ago two houses were fired in Palisade avenue, West Hoboken, by incendiaries, but fortunately the fire was discovered in time to prevent any serious damage. At two o'clock yesterday morning the rear portion of the premises adjoining Ranocher's Hotel, on the Paterson plank road, West Hoboken, was set on fire, but this time, too, the vigilance of one of the inmates of the house saved the whole range of buildings from destruction. A heap of wood was found built up close to the side of a frame building and a large quantity of kerosene had been poured on it. The moment the flames were discovered an alarm was given and the wood was pulled away and scattered at a safe distance. A workman named Lackey, who was asleep in a room close to the wall where the fire broke out, was found insensible, and the men who carried him out were almost overpowered by the stench of the kerosene. Restoratives were applied with success, and the attending physician stated that there was no doubt whatever that had the man remained many minutes longer in the room he would have been totally suffocated.

This is the third time an attempt has been made to burn down this building. It is a fact worth mentioning that at the present term of the Hudson County Court there were more cases of arson than for the three years previous taken together.

The people of Union Hill and West Hoboken have at last adopted what they believe will prove a corrective in the formation of a Citizens' Committee of Safety, similar to that organized in Fort Lee against horse thieves a year ago. The members of this committee will be told off for duty in squads during the night, and woe betide the wretch who may be found transgressing.

A JUMPING MATCH FOR $2,000.

BOSTON, Feb. 16, 1870.

A jumping match for $2,000 came off to-day at Savin Hall, Dorchester, between John T. Ryan, of New York city, and Harry Langley, of Halifax. Ryan was the winner of the match, the conditions being the best in three standing jumps. Ryan's first jump was eleven feet nine inches, his second eleven feet ten inches and the third twelve feet seven and a half inches. Langley's score was:—The first jump eleven feet ten inches, the second eleven feet and three quarter inches, and the third twelve feet three and a half inches. In a previous match between these men Langley was the victor. There was a great deal of money pending on the match in New York, and about $15,000 changed hands on the ground. Langley won $3,000 on his first jump by beating Ryan one inch. The jumping was most excellent by both parties, Ryan's third jump being only three-quarters of an inch less than the longest jump on record, and that was made by Bob Way in his match with Bortle.

OBTAINING MONEY BY TRICK AND DEVICE.

Mr. Albert B. Packer, accompanied by Captain Jourdan, appeared before Judge Dowling yesterday and charged a young man named Davies with obtaining from him twenty-two dollars by trick and device. The circumstances were as follows:—Mr. Packer says that on the 17th of November his residence in West Morrisania was burglariously entered and property to the value of $1,500 stolen therefrom. Some time subsequently a "personal" appeared in the HERALD which led him to make an appointment with the defendant, who represented that he could tell him where his property was secreted, and that a watch, part of the property, was pledged for twenty-two dollars, and that if he would give him the twenty-two dollars he would recover it for him. He said that the house was No. 3 Summit street, Brooklyn. Mr. Packer paid Davies the twenty-two dollars and afterwards obtained a search warrant for the house. It is needless almost to state that there was no property found in the house, and that Davies was a "fraud." Nothing could be seen of Davies by Mr. Packer until yesterday, when he saw him in the Bowery and caused his arrest. Judge Dowling committed him to answer.

CRIM. CON. AND MURDER.

A Discarded Husband's Tribulations—Kills His Wife in the Presence of Her Paramour and Children—A Sad Tale of Female Infidelity.

Another murder to chronicle! A wife's infidelity, a quarrel and a murder by shooting at the hands of a frenzied husband occurred about eight o'clock last evening.

The facts, as near as could be hurriedly gleaned last night from various sources, are these:—When the war broke out, and patriots rushed to arms, Thomas Sheridan, an industrious manufacturer and dealer in pickles, at 108 East Twenty-third street, felt that it was his duty to enter the fray and assist in the defence of the cause of the Union. Selling out his establishment and providing for his wife Margaret and four children, he entered the service with the Seventy ninth (Highland) New York regiment. He passed through the three years' term of service, and left the army in 1864, with a good record for sobriety and bravery. Returning to his family, who at that time resided in South Yonkers, there was no wife's kiss of welcome to greet him, no expression of joy at his escape from the perils of war. He found to his dismay that the wife he had left covered with tears three years before no longer loved him. In his absence her father, a Mr. O'Brien, of Yonkers, had died and bequeathed to her children property worth $30,000 or $40,000, over which she exercised control. On presenting himself at the home, the children ran to greet and caress him, but the wife turned away in scorn and loathing at the appearance of his uniform and sun-browned features.

Thomas Sheridan vainly endeavored to induce his wife to receive him, if only for the sake of their children, but Margaret was inexorable. She drove him from her house, an outcast, sorrowing father and husband.

Leaving the city, after bidding his offspring an adieu, he left for the Plains, where for several years he has been following various occupations, most of the time as teamster in supply trains. Returning home a month ago he sought for his family at Yonkers, but found them not. He ascertained that they had removed to the city, and were living at No. 517 West Forty-first street. He also learned that the wife had obtained control of the children's inheritance, and had sold a portion of it for $25,000. Pushing his investigations further Sheridan discovered that during his absence in the West his wife had given birth to a child in Eighth street, the result of unlicensed love, which died, and that she had another at the breast, the offspring of shame.

He sought her out and made further efforts at reconciliation, promising if she would put away the child and her paramour, who was said to be one Michael Powers, then living with her, he would forgive and forget the past. This proposition was scorned by the woman, who retained the evidences of her shame, Powers and the child, always with her. Several times he renewed his efforts at reconciliation, but in vain.

A few days ago Sheridan again visited the woman at her house, but did not meet the destroyer of his happiness. Again he begged of her to reform—to discard her guilty lover and become a virtuous wife. The woman could not be moved in her resolution and threatened to have him beaten by her paramour should he return. It is charged that on that occasion he showed a revolver and threatened her; but this he denies.

Last evening about eight o'clock he entered the rooms, which are on the fourth floor of a four story wooden tenement house, setting back from the street. At the time a grown up niece of his wife, Miss Jane Webb; the children, three boys and a girl, and Powers were in the kitchen. The wife and the baby were in the rear bed room. On his appearance the girl Webb entered the bedroom and awakened Margaret, who came out and sat on a chair. She found Sheridan sitting near the window, and Powers was standing opposite Sheridan bade her good evening, cast a glance at Powers, a tremor ran through his frame, and a quarrel ensued. She upbraided him for entering the house and asked him if he had come to put his threat into execution. He asked, "What threat?" "The threat you made to shoot me the other day." Sheridan denied having threatened her, when she became very abusive, and, driven to desperation, he quickly drew a Smith & Wesson revolver and discharged two shots at her in rapid succession. Both took effect—one in the right side of the mouth, the other in the chin, and both taking an upward direction. The woman had strength enough to walk across to the chair from which her husband had arisen, and remarking "You have killed me," sank down and immediately expired.

The girl, Webb, seeing the tragedy, rushed to the street and gave the alarm. Officer Halliday, of the Twentieth precinct, ran in, and found the woman dead, with the husband and the paramour standing over her. They were both taken to the station house, and Sheridan was arraigned before Sergeant McCullough, who, after hearing his statements and those of Powers, locked him up. Roundsman Wester hurried to the house and, by the aid of officer William Coffee, dispersed the crowd. Dr. Eldenbenz, the family physician, in the meantime had been called, and pronounced life extinct.

When taken from the room Sheridan was not aware that the woman was dead. Our reporter, who visited him in his cell subsequently, was the first person to break the news to him, and he sank down overcome with grief, expressed his sorrow at his rash act, and stated that had he known at the time that Powers was the poacher who had encroached upon his domain he would have killed him instead. Mr. Sheridan stated to our reporter that he was driven to the rash act by the violence of the woman and the presence of an illegitimate child associating with his own innocent children, who are old enough to feel the guilt of their unnatural mother. From him the particulars of his movements after the war were obtained. He expressed the hope that the public will not judge him harshly until after an investigation takes place. Mr. Sheridan is a brother of Matthew Sheridan, pickle manufacturer, in Thirty-ninth street, near Second avenue, and those who know him state that his reputation has always been good. An inquest to-day will doubtless elicit further particulars in this latest domestic tragedy.

The sergeant in charge at the Twentieth precinct station house did not detain the man Michael Powers, who was the only witness of the fatal act. Powers himself visited the station house and made the charge of murder against Sheridan, but from some inexplicable negligence he was allowed to leave, and has not since been seen in the neighborhood. The allowing the only witness against a murderer to remain at large is at least a questionable act, and might very easily defeat the ends of justice. Captain Caffery or his sergeant, whoever may be to blame, were certainly lax in the discharge of their duties when they failed to detain the only man who can give any particulars as to this apparently cold-blooded murder.

ANOTHER ULSTER COUNTY HORROR.

A Farmer Chopped to Death with an Axe by a Negro Mute.

A terrible affair, a brief account of which has already appeared in the HERALD, has occurred in Ulster county, near a little town called Ohioville, twelve miles west of the Hudson river. There lived in the neighborhood a wealthy and influential farmer named Daniel A. Hasbrouck. He was known throughout the entire length and breadth of the county and was much respected. Some years ago, taking pity on a deaf and dumb negro, named Gardner, he gave him employment on his farm. The new hand soon began to make himself very useful, although at times he would act stubbornly and become sullen and morose for days. His periodical fits of despondency caused much uneasiness among the female members of Mr. Hasbrouck's family, and they often urged Daniel to get rid of the negro, fearing he would set the house on fire or do some other mischief of a serious nature. Mr. Hasbrouck's neighbors also hinted the matter to him; but to all he replied, laughingly, "Oh, he'll get along; I can handle him easily." Thus matters progressed till Monday night last, when it was observed that Gardner had a fit of the "sulks." He took no supper, but roamed about the barn, not deigning to hold communication with any member of the family. He went to bed at an early hour. Tuesday morning, when he got up, the "sulks" were still on him, and he refused breakfast. Mr. Hasbrouck directed him to go to the woodpile and split some wood. Making one or two motions with his hands, the mute started for the pile, Mr. Hasbrouck following. Taking up the axe he commenced his work; but, stopping suddenly, he whirled around and seized Mr. Hasbrouck by the throat, and letting the handle of the axe slip through his hand till it came to the blade, raised it and commenced chopping the farmer in the face. The first blow was across the left eye and the second over the jaw and lip. A woman coming to the door of Mr. Hasbrouck's residence saw the affray, and, screaming with all her might, ran back into the house. By this time the farmer, after a desperate struggle, broke away from his murderous assailant, and started to run, closely pursued by the black, who glided swiftly after his victim, with the axe high in air. Faint from the loss of blood, the farmer could not move fast enough, and Gardner catching up to him the murderous axe fell again, this time upon Mr. Hasbrouck's right shoulder, sinking four inches deep into the shoulder blade. The victim fell upon his face on the snow. Once more the villain raised the weapon and with the butt end of it crushed in the back of the farmer's skull. He was about to make a fourth stroke, when some neighbors arrived upon the scene, among them Dr. Holt, who caused the arrest of Gardner. As they led the deaf and dumb monster away he encircled his throat with his hands and then held one hand above his head, as if he expected to be hung for his bloody transaction. Mr. Hasbrouck was conveyed to his residence in a dying condition, perfectly unconscious, and when Dr. John R. Cooper, of Poughkeepsie, left his bedside, at half-past four o'clock on Tuesday afternoon, it was supposed he could not live two hours. Mr. Hasbrouck died without uttering a word about five o'clock the same day. The negro was taken before a New Paltz justice, and, after a preliminary examination, was sent to Kingston jail to await the action of the Grand Jury. This is the most horrible affair that has happened in Ulster county in a long while, and the farmers in the neighborhood are in a high state of excitement over it. Had the negro been held near the scene for any length of time there is no doubt that he would have been lynched. Mr. Hasbrouck was about forty-five years of age, a man of large fortune, and leaves a wife and one child. The murderer is twenty-two years of age.

THE VOORHEES ASSASSINATION.

The Crowner's Quest—That Heavy Drinking "Bout"—"Yes, I'm a Know Nothing"—Somebody Who "Understood" Something About Chambers' Mind.

Coroner Jones, of Brooklyn, last evening commenced the inquest on the body of Dominicus S. Voorhees, who was shot dead on Sunday night by William Chambers in that city. The Coroner charged the jury fully on their duty, urging them to give the matter unbiased consideration, being guided by the evidence developed.

Frank Duffy testified that on Sunday night Chambers came to his house; had a glass of wine and invited him out, and together they went to Fogarty's saloon; had wine there with Voorhees and others; didn't remember what conversation; went home and Chambers left me; I was drunk and went to bed; about three o'clock in the morning my wife woke me and told me Chambers had killed a man; have known Chambers eighteen or twenty years, but of late not very intimate; there was nothing in his conduct which led me to think him of unsound mind; cannot say whether he was sober or not, nor who was in the barroom; my wife understood there was something wrong about Chambers' mind; witness did not think that he himself was in such a state of sobriety that he could get out of the house on Sunday night after going home; heard people say Chambers was of unsound mind six months ago; am a commission merchant at 75 Franklin street.

Mary Duffy, wife of the first witness, testified that Chambers visited her house on Sunday evening about six o'clock; he was sober, but had had a few drinks; her husband went out with Chambers, and was "boozy" when he returned; then he and Chambers talked about an old difficulty between themselves; they went out and got some liquor; Duffy returned "boozy," and Chambers was a little drunk, but not so bad as Duffy; put her husband to bed, and Chambers searched Duffy's pockets for money, but found none; Chambers pulled out his own pistol, laid it on the table, took it up and went out, seeming angry; shortly after witness went out and heard the deed was done—that Chambers had shot Voorhees; had known Chambers twelve years; when a person would cough or spit Chambers would think they were humbugging him and tell them not to do it again; I went to Mr. Fogerty's to look after him, but he was not there at the time; I told the barboy to look out for Chambers, as he had whiskey in, and had a loaded pistol in his breast pocket.

Peter Fogarty testified that on Sunday evening Voorhees, Alderman Moore, of New York, and Mr. Tuhl came to his saloon and had two or three bottles of wine; then Duffy and Chambers came in and Tuhl spoke to Duffy, and shortly after Voorhees said "I'm mad at that cuss Tuhl; he wouldn't introduce me to his friend;" I introduced him to Duffy and Duffy introduced Chambers; Voorhees called for more wine; Tuhl said to me that Chambers was "a queer looking genius;" Chambers threw his wine against the stove and Voorhees then drank a toast:—"The American eagle over Great Britain and France;" Duffy seemed pleased and was going home, when Voorhees asked, "What's that?" Chambers said, "Damn you two fellows, you are a pair of Know Nothings;" Voorhees said, "Yes, I am a Know Nothing;" Duffy and Chambers both then ordered some wine, and after that they drank with me, and shortly afterwards McClellan and Searing came in.

At this point the inquest was adjourned till this evening.

Indignation Meeting of Brooklyn Citizens.

There was a meeting of master mechanics held yesterday afternoon, to take action in respect to the assassination of Dominicus S. Voorhees, and to express their abhorrence of the crime. About two hundred persons were present at the place of meeting, No. 385 Fulton street. R. W. Adams was chosen as chairman and Charles Fish officiated as secretary. Patrick E. Dillon offered a resolution "That a committee of three be appointed by the chairman of this meeting to draft suitable resolutions to express the deep sympathy of our feelings towards the family of our deceased friend and fellow citizen, D. S. Voorhees, Esq., who came to his death by the foul blow of an assassin; and that this meeting feels the greatest indignation and cannot find words strong enough to condemn that foul assassin who has deprived many mechanics of this city of a friend and true man." Mr. W. H. Hazard, in the course of a few remarks, took occasion to express his indignation at the manner in which the laws are carried out and in which the judges charged the juries. He hoped that those who are administering the laws would now realize the fact that they were determined to be heard, either at the ballot box or otherwise. A committee of seven was appointed to draft resolutions of respect to the memory of the deceased, to be presented to the family of Mr. Voorhees. The meeting then adjourned, to reassemble at ten o'clock this morning and attend the funeral in a body.

EDUCATIONAL AFFAIRS.

Meeting of the Board of Commissioners of Common Schools—The Study of Languages in the Common Schools—An Irish Petition and a Scotch Speech—Appointments of Teachers—The Evening High School and the Evening School on Blackwell's Island.

The Board of Education, or rather, a quorum of the Board, met yesterday evening in stated session, with the President, Mr. R. E. Larremore, in the chair. The lobby was well filled by teachers and others connected with the public schools. Among the papers was a communication from the Trustees of the Seventh ward in relation to the study of the Irish language in the public schools.

The petition stated in lengthy words and somewhat obscure sentences that a "right, incompatible with the cosmopolitan character of this city, appears to have been given to the German language;" that all nationalities should be merged into one embodiment, the beau ideal, &c., of the world—an American citizen. It then presented the merits and claims of the Gaelic language, in which "the warm lay of love and the light notes of gladness" awaken the most eloquent sentiments, exciting to achievements the most brilliant, quoting its "affinity with the Sanscrit, the eldest daughter of the undiscoverable mother-tongue," and contained much more to the same effect.

Commissioner WOOD arose when the reading had been completed and said he believed firmly in the sentiment of the preamble that the schools should be conducted so as to make only American citizens. He thought the children of Irish parentage, being quite numerous, should have the same privilege as the Germans, and the Gaelic should be introduced. He favored also a change in the musical arrangements in the schools where Gaelic prevailed, and that instead of the piano the "Harp that once through Tara's halls the soul of music shed" should be introduced, and in those schools where the Scot element was greatest the bagpipes might be used. The petition asking for the introduction of the German uniforms for the scholars was referred to, and he would suggest that the uniform of the ancient Gaels would be found quite beneficial in giving ample ventilation to the urchins' limbs and saving their mothers the trouble of repairing the seats and knees of the trousers.

The subject was referred to the Committee on the Course of Studies.

As soon as order was restored the regular business of the Board went on in order. The action of the trustees of the Nineteenth ward, in removing Miss Molloy from the male department of grammar school No. 53 to a primary school, was declared illegal, and her restoration to her original position was ordered by a unanimous vote. Commissioner Bell, from the Normal School Commissioners, reported the following additional appointments in the daily normal and high school:—Professor of Natural Sciences, Mr. P. M. W. Redfield, at an annual salary of $3,500; assistants, Miss H. M. Holman, at $1,500, and Miss Abbie E. Hamlin, $1,200. Assistant to the president, Miss Mary Willard, $1,200; assistant to the vice president, Miss Frances E. Peck, $1,500; teacher of calisthenics, Miss Laura E. Leal, $1,400; teacher of drawing, Miss A. Caroline Covell, $1,400. The report of the committee was confirmed. A resolution was adopted granting permission to the trustees of the Nineteenth ward to continue the session of the evening school on Blackwell's Island as long as that of the evening high school, and notice was given that the high school will continue in session some six weeks longer. After the transaction of some further routine business the Board adjourned.

THE "HOTBED OF CRIME."

NEW YORK, Feb. 16, 1870.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:—

Your article headed "A Hotbed of Crime," in this morning's paper, is an article which ought to be read with care by every New Yorker of respectability. What we want and must have is Judge Lynch in that locality for about six months, and then, and not until then, will respectable citizens be safe.

The threat by "Fourteenth Ward," who desires you to "call off your dogs at once," ought to prove the state of society in that locality. Now, I say, put on all the "dogs" you can, and let them be "bloodhounds."

ALBANY, Feb. 16, 1870.

THE EXCISE BILL.

After the reading of the journal the Senate went into committee on the special order—the Excise law.

Mr. SCOTT moved an amendment that at the general election of 1870 the question of granting licenses be submitted to the people of the State, which he proceeded to advocate. After debate this amendment was lost.

Mr. WOOD offered an amendment, providing for the election of Excise Commissioners by the people of the several counties, except in incorporated cities, the Commissioners to hold office for three years, the minority to be represented in the Board, and no elector to vote for more than two Commissioners of Excise on the same ticket.

Further debate ensued, when Mr. Wood added to his amendment a section applicable to incorporated cities, providing for the election of six Commissioners of Excise to hold office for six years, the majority to elect four and the minority two of such Commissioners. Lost by a strict party vote—9 to 13.

Mr. WOOD then moved to amend that the Excise Commissioners shall be elected directly by the people in the several towns. Lost.

After further discussion the committee rose, and the bill was referred to be reported complete.

ASSEMBLY.

ALBANY, Feb. 16, 1870.

REPORTS.

By Mr. BAMLER—The Canal Appropriation bill. By Mr. FREAR—Abolishing the present Court of Special Sessions in New York; also chartering the Manhattan Market Company of New York. By Mr. MOSELY—Setting apart a portion of the Brooklyn Park for the use of the military. By Mr. CAMPBELL—Relative to non residents occupying market stands in New York. By Mr. FREAR—Amending the act to increase the salaries of interpreters of the New York Police and District courts, and confirm the action of the Common Council of New York in relation thereto.

THE ARREST OF MR. RAY—JUDGE POTTER, THE SHERIFF AND DISTRICT ATTORNEY OF SARATOGA COUNTY BEFORE THE HOUSE.

The SPEAKER announced the special order summoning to the bar of the House Judge Potter, District Attorney French and Sheriff Benedict, of Saratoga, to give reasons for the high breach of privilege in arresting as a witness Hon. H. Ray, member of the House. The Sergeant-at-Arms, bringing those gentlemen to the bar, the Speaker addressed them, stating why they were brought there and asked what excuse they had to give.

Judge POTTER asked if he could be heard through counsel. The Speaker stated that under the circumstances he could not.

Judge POTTER then addressed the Speaker, declaring that he did not acknowledge the power of this House to summon him to its bar for the purpose stated or for the reasons given, but he had through courtesy appeared there, notwithstanding he denied the authority of the House in the matter. He then proceeded at some length in defence of his action, and declared that he would repeat his action under like circumstances. He said it was not himself who was brought here; it was the Supreme Court of this State which this House was about to act against. He claimed that the judicial department of this State had powers as well as the Legislature. He asserted that the House had no right to bring these two departments into conflict; and whatever resolution the House might pass it could not degrade the court nor the representative of the court here. He analyzed the law of privilege to show that the House had no such privilege as was claimed for it. The law exempts members from arrest under civil process. The member was not arrested under civil process. The process issued from the Oyer and Terminer, a criminal court. He suggested that the resolutions reported by the committee be withdrawn, and be referred to the Judiciary Committee for review and further consideration or to the Attorney General of the State for an opinion. He suggested this as the matter involves a very important precedent—this arraying one department of the government against another. He insisted that he had administered the law in this case in accordance with its interpretation by the most eminent jurists, and he called attention to the fact that this was the first instance in the whole history of American jurisprudence that a judge was arraigned for mistaking the law. He reviewed the report of the committee, and cited authorities to show that their claim of privilege was based on cases in England, occurring over a century ago and before the passage by Parliament of the law which now defines the privileges of members.

At the conclusion of Judge Potter's address Mr. FIELDS moved that Judge Potter in issuing the attachment for the arrest of Mr. Ray is deserving of the censure of the House, and that he be reprimanded by the Speaker. Mr. Fields then at some length argued that the privileges of the House had been grossly violated by the action of Judge Potter. He insisted that the attachment was a civil and not a criminal process. Mr. Fields proceeded at length to show by frequent citations from authorities that this was a civil process, and that, as the judge had admitted, a member was exempt from arrest under such a process.

Mr. ALVORD offered the following amendment to Mr. Fields' resolution:—

Resolved, That Hon. Platt Potter was mistaken as to the privileges of this House in the action taken by him in the arrest of Hon. Henry Ray, and did commit a breach of its privileges in so doing, but this House do not believe that any intention or desire to interfere with the independence or dignity of the House actuated him in the performance of that which he deemed his judicial duty.

Mr. W. D. MURPHY moved as a substitute that the opinion of the Attorney General as to the meaning of civil process be obtained before action is taken, postponing the subject till March 1.

Mr. LITTLEJOHN hoped this substitute would not be adopted. This matter was plain English, and he wanted no opinion from any man. He was able to decide this precedent to-day, here and now.

Mr. WHITE held that this process was clearly a criminal one. The court from which it issued was a criminal one, and, as a consequence, the process issuing from it was criminal, and the House was wrong in summoning the Judge here.

Mr. LITTLEJOHN claimed that a member of this House was exempt from arrest under any and all process, except in the case where he himself is charged with a crime. He proceeded at some length to illustrate and sustain his position, but still, believing the Judge had acted from the best motives, he would vote for the resolution of Mr. Alvord.

Mr. HUSTED, after sustaining Mr. Alvord's resolution, moved the previous question.

Mr. MURPHY's resolution was rejected and Mr. Alvord's was then adopted—95 to 15—as follows:—

YEAS—Messrs. Ainsworth, Allaben, Alvord, Baker, Baldwin, Bemus, Bennett, Bergen, Berry, Blair, Blossom, Bolt, Bradford, S. L. Brown, Barnes, Campbell, Carey, Clark, Coon, Cullen, J. T. Davis, Dalano, Deming, Dodge, Eaker, Ely, Empire, Fields, Flagg, R. NAYS—Messrs. Bamler, Banker, Cavanagh, Decker, Droll, Haner, Hennessey, Horton, Lawrence, Mosely, A. Murphy, W. D. Murphy, Pierce, Sturgess and White—15.

Judge Potter was discharged from custody.

W. B. French, District Attorney, was then brought to the bar of the House. Mr. French proceeded to give his excuse for his action in the matter, taking the position that this was a criminal process.

Mr. FIELDS moved a similar resolution to the one adopted in the case of Judge Potter, and it was adopted. Mr. French was discharged from custody.

Elisha B. Benedict, Deputy Sheriff, was then arraigned, and had the Clerk read a statement that he executed the attachment under the advice and direction of a superior officer. On motion of Mr. FIELDS, Mr. Benedict was discharged, he having acted merely in a ministerial capacity.

The annual meeting of the Hudson River Conference of the Unitarian churches was held at the Church of the Messiah, corner of Thirty-fourth street and Park avenue, yesterday.

The treasurer of the Children's Aid Society reports that the receipts for the nine months from the 1st of February to the 1st of November, 1869, were $94,914, and the payments $96,978. The total receipts during the sixteen years and nine months the society has been in existence amount to $787,015.

The case of Andrew Hyland, the lad who was killed last Sunday afternoon by being run over corner of Tenth street and avenue A, by car No. 41 of the Thirty-fourth street and the Grand street ferry line, was investigated yesterday before Coroner Keenan, at the City Hall. Some testimony was taken and the further hearing was adjourned to Monday next.

Solicitor Burt, one of the legal lights of London, arrived in this city by the steamship Siberia. Mr. Burt brings with him a large supply of British gold for the purpose of inaugurating a new war on Erie. It is reported that the British capitalists are going in for the control of Erie, utterly regardless of expense. Good news for the lawyers. The foreign phalanx is to co-operate with the Ramsey-Eaton party.

The Quarantine Commissioners, in company with the Health Officer (Dr. Carnochan) and several practical engineers, visited the quarantine station in the lower bay yesterday, and made full examinations, with the purpose of determining the style of buildings to be erected. The Commissioners are commencing by making themselves thoroughly acquainted with the details of the institutions coming under their control.

Columbus Delano, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, arrived in this city yesterday from Washington. It is understood that he has come on expressly to investigate the late wholesale seizures by Collector Bailey of leading liquor merchants in the Thirty-second district, which have not yet been presented to the legal authorities. Mr. Delano was visited yesterday by a large number of leading politicians, merchants bankers, lawyers and prominent citizens.

The average attendance at the charity schools last year was 2,747. The aggregate number of boys lodged at the Newsboys' Lodging House was 7,383; at the Girls' Lodging House 358 girls have been received. At the lodging house in the Eleventh ward 454 boys were taken care of. At the Boys' Lodging House in the Sixteenth ward 563 boys were received. The whole number received at the Phelps Lodging House, No. 327 Rivington street, was 531.

John McDonald, who keeps a liquor store in Forty-fifth street, was yesterday charged before Judge Coulter, at the Yorkville Police Court, with committing a gross outrage on Mrs. Eliza Farrell, a respectable sewing woman living in the same street. The on Saturday night last in McDonald's place for some complainant states in her affidavit that she went ale, when he at once locked the door, turned off the gas and committed the outrage. Subsequently, it was further charged, he assaulted her husband for remonstrating with him. The accused gave bail to answer both charges.

Quite a flutter was yesterday created among the City Hall politicians, but more particularly in the Police Department, by the announcement publicly made that Coroner Flynn was earnestly seeking the appointment of Superintendent of Police, in place of John A. Kennedy, and that he (Flynn) was absent in Albany to use his influence in passing the new city charter. The spirit exhibited by Coroner Flynn in the management of the Thomas Jackson murder case and other inquisitions which might be referred to seem just reasons for vesting him with such great power as he seeks to attain.

The Commissioners of Emigration held their stated meeting last night at the Society Library, the president, Mr. Verplank in the chair. After the transaction of merely formal business it was resolved to make an official inspection of the proposed site for the Insane Asylum on Ward's Island on the 23d inst., and it was agreed to invite Dr. Brown, Superintendent of Bloomingdale Asylum, to confer with the Commissioners on the plans for the building that have been submitted. The total number of emigrants reported arrived in this port since January 1 was 6,017, against 7,706 during the same period in 1869. A number of bills were audited and ordered paid and the Board adjourned.

Jeremiah F. Sullivan, of No. 32 Spring street, yesterday morning preferred a complaint before Justice Cox, at Jefferson Market, against Joseph Carr, charging him with setting fire to the premises No. 314 Fourth avenue on Sunday night last. The complainant states he was employed to watch the building, and about seven o'clock on Sunday night discovered the prisoner throw a lighted piece of paper into the front door of the store and walk rapidly away up town. Fire Marshal Brackett, who accompanied the prisoner to court, expressed it as his opinion that the complaint was rather weak and had the appearance of being a "put up job." Justice Cox, however, decided to commit the prisoner without bail pending an examination.

A very singular case of suffocation occurred in the stables 1,358 Broadway. James Skelly kept horses at the above number and took care of them himself. On Saturday evening deceased was missed and search made for him, but without success; but about twelve o'clock on Sunday Patrick Murphy, brother-in-law to Skelly, went to the stable to water the horses and saw his (Skelly's) hat on the floor, near the manger, and looking up saw the missing man in the manger, with his head down and quite dead. It is supposed deceased went alone to feed the horses and fell backwards into the manger and was suffocated. Coroner Keenan was notified in the case. Deceased was sixty-eight years of age and a native of Ireland.

A meeting of the manufacturers and dealers in fruit jars throughout the United States was held at the Astor House yesterday to consider the present and prospective condition of the trade. Edward Tatum, of the firm of Whitall, Tatum & Co., acted as chairman, and Stephen R. Pinckney, president of the Mason Manufacturing Company, as secretary. A committee of manufacturers, consisting of Messrs. Lyman, Boyd, Shaffer, Moore and Samuel, and Messrs. Booth, Wisner, Almy, Savin and Haller, on the part of the jobbers, was appointed, and submitted a resolution that the manufacturers and patentees present be appointed a committee to take into consideration questions for the furtherance of the interests of the trade, and recommending all other manufacturers to take similar steps. Adopted. The meeting then adjourned to the 24th.

Coroner Keenan yesterday commenced an investigation in the case of John Merkle, the German, late of No. 459 Tenth avenue, who was fatally beaten on the night of the 1st inst. by a gang of unknown rowdies, as previously published in the HERALD. Captain Williamson, of the Sixteenth precinct police, has as yet been unable to learn anything concerning the perpetrators of the crime. When the assault was committed upon Merkle his friends did not believe him to be fatally injured; consequently the attention of the police was not drawn to the matter till after Merkle's death, and then it seemed impossible for Captain Williamson or his detective officers to gain any clue to the guilty parties.

The testimony of Gotleib Hohlarger was taken and the further hearing adjourned.

THE COURTS.

Revenue Frauds—The Twelve Temptations in Court—The Kansas Railway Litigation—A Ferry Company Mulcted—Sentences in the General Sessions.

UNITED STATES COMMISSIONERS' COURT.

The Revenue Match Case—An Honorable Discharge.

Before Commissioner Shields.

The United States vs. John Loehr.—The defendant, originally joined with Mr. Breitman, of the firm of Loehr & Breitman, were charged with fraudulently removing a quantity of cigars seized on their premises, and at the time under seizure, from the custody of the United States Marshal. The examination has been going on before Commissioner Shields for some days. The circumstances have been all previously published in the HERALD. Breitman, one of the defendants, was discharged at the last examination, and yesterday the present Mr. Loehr was also honorably discharged. It was made clear during the examination that this was one of those cases that certain detective officers make up for the purpose of blackmailing business men.

SUPREME COURT—CHAMBERS.

The Twelve Temptations in Court—Injunction and Counter-Injunction—The Old Game.

Before Judge Barnard.

J. C. Foster vs. John E. McDonough and W. E. De Verna.—This was a case involving the ownership of the spectacular representation entitled "The Twelve Temptations." It appeared that some difficulty having arisen between the parties claiming the profits arising from its production, the plaintiff, an employé of James Fisk, Jr., obtained an order of injunction from the court on Monday last appointing John F. Cole, the business agent of the Grand Opera House, as receiver of all personal chattels, and especially the wardrobes, scenic effects and other properties of the piece. It was averred that the defendants were joint owners with the plaintiff. The injunction enjoining the defendants from interfering with the property described in any way and requiring them to show cause why the order should not be made permanent. The defendants, however, on Tuesday last obtained and order from Judge Van Brunt, of the Common Pleas, restraining Foster, Cole, Fisk and the Erie Railroad Company from assigning, disposing of or encumbering the wardrobe of proprietors, accessories or scenic effects of the piece, or from praying for or applying for an order other than the facts set forth in the contracts shall justify, or from dividing among themselves any part of the receipts accruing from the performance; and further that they should show cause why the order of injunction should not be continued. McDonough and De Verna alleged that they entered into an agreement with Foster, in November last, to produce the piece. De Verna and McDonough having, as they averred, advanced money; that the interest of the three parties in the piece and its properties should be severally one-third, and that the profits arising from it, over and above the price to be paid for the use thereof to the proprietors of the theatres, should be equally divided between them; that the first profits should be applied to reducing the advances made by McDonough until they were reduced to the same amount as the advances of De Verna and Foster; that they entered into an agreement with Cole, who made arrangements in behalf of the Grand Opera House for the necessary mechanical appliances and requirements, and to pay to the three parties one-half of the net proceeds of the representations of the piece, after deducting the price of the house and taxes; that since the piece was produced Foster refused to render any account, and that Fisk has declined to recognize the rights of McDonough or De Verna. The complaint prayed that an account be taken of the advances by McDonough and De Verna, of the net proceeds of the representations, and that their rights, together with those of Foster, be sold under the direction of the Court, for distribution.

The order of injunction restraining McDonough and De Verna was returnable yesterday before Judge Barnard. Counsel for the defendants asked for a postponement, on the ground that they were not prepared. After some discussion,

Judge Barnard adjourned the case until Friday on consideration that the injunction order obtained from Judge Van Brunt, and returnable before him, should be postponed till Monday.

The Kansas Railroad Litigation—The $6,500,000 Loan—Order of Injunction.

Sanders W. Johnston vs. The Kansas Pacific Railroad Company.—This was a motion for an injunction restraining the agents of the defendants in this city from parting with any money proceeds of the $6,500,000 gold loan now being negotiated. The motion was also to show cause why the loan should not be prohibited. The complaint set forth that in September, 1851, the plaintiff and John P. Usher entered into an agreement with the Leavenworth, Pawnee and Western Railroad Company to procure a treaty between the United States and the Pottawattamie tribe of Indians for the sale of a certain portion of their lands to the railroad company, and also to exert themselves to procure, as soon as possible, the assent of the chief of the Delaware tribe of Indians to the treaty and amendments about to be submitted to them, and the approval and proclamation of the same, in consideration of the approval of the Indians to cause the capital stock of the company to be increased to $5,000,000, and to give to Usher and Johnston $1,533,000, in the proportion of one-third to Usher and two-thirds to Johnson. Subsequently Johnston made an agreement with the company, by which the previous contract as regarded himself was cancelled, and in consideration of services previously rendered by Johnston the company agreed to execute a contract for $120,000 of the stock of the company, and to assign to him, on the ratification of the treaty, $80,000 of the stock, and further, at the same time to assign to him, as alleged, $250,000 of said stock, or, at his option, to convey to him by quit claim deed average land of said company acquired by said treaty, in lieu of all or any part of said last named amount of stock, at the rate of 1,000 acres of said land for $50,000 of said stock, provided he made known to the company his intention to take land in place of all or any part of said $260,000 of stock within thirty days from date.

The Court granted the order, and the further hearing of the case was adjourned.

SUPREME COURT—TRIAL TERM.—PART I.

Action Against a Ferry Company—Alleged Negligence—Verdict for the Plaintiff.

Before Judge Brady.

J. F. Wyckoff vs. The Queens County Ferry Company.—This was an action to recover $4,494 damages under the following circumstances:—At about ten o'clock on the night of October 15, 1866, the plaintiff and his wife drove on to one of the defendants' ferryboats. At the blowing of the whistle the horse made a dash forward and was precipitated into the river, dragging with it the carriage and occupants. The horse was drowned and the carriage disappeared. The plaintiff and his wife were saved, the latter having been kept floating by her crinoline. The plaintiff alleged that, notwithstanding his remonstrance, the pilot of the ferryboat continued to blow the whistle, and, moreover, that there was no chain across the end of the boat. The defence was a general denial and an averment that the accident was caused by contributory negligence on the part of the plaintiff.

The jury returned a verdict for the plaintiff—damages $1,079 33.

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS.

Before Recorder Hackett.

There were a number of cases on the calendar to-day, but owing to the absence of complainants in a number of cases Mr. Tweed was compelled to ask for a forfeiture of the recognizances.

GRAND LARCENIES.

John Gross pleaded guilty to grand larceny and was sent to the State Prison for three years.

Peter Scully pleaded guilty to an attempt at burglary in the third degree and was sent to the State Prison for two years and six months.

Charles D. Bowen was charged with stealing, on the 21st of January, a feather bed and other articles, valued at forty dollars, the property of John Ransom, and was sent to the Penitentiary for six months.

BROOKLYN COURTS.

COURT OF SESSIONS.

A Wife Murderer Disposed Of.

Before Judge Troy.

Francis P. Mills was tried yesterday for stabbing his wife, Catherine Mills, on the 16th of January last, at their residence on Fifth avenue, near Eighteenth street. This Mills was sentenced to the State Prison some four years ago for killing his wife in the Eagle newspaper building (in which he was employed as engineer), but Governor Fenton pardoned him out, and upon returning to Brooklyn he married his present wife, who was a witness against him on his former trial. The jury yesterday convicted Mills of an assault with intent to do bodily harm, and the Judge sentenced him to the Penitentiary for four years, eleven months and twenty-nine days.

A Young Burglar.

Matthew Doyle, a young man, indicted for burglary in having broken into a private residence on Baltic street, pleaded guilty yesterday, and was sentenced to the Penitentiary for four years. The prisoner was arrested four times before the present charge.

A MAN KILLED ON THE ERIE RAILWAY.

At seven o'clock last evening a switchman named John Molloy, employed at the Erie Railway depot, in Jersey City, was run over and instantly killed at the Prospect street crossing, while in the act of coupling cars. The body was conveyed to North Fourth street, where the unfortunate man resided.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

WALL STREET,
WEDNESDAY, Feb. 16—6 P. M.

Except at the Stock Exchange there was little animation to-day in the different departments of Wall street. It would seem as if the speculative capital now at stake was limited to a certain sum, which is for the present invested in stocks.

GOLD DULL.

Gold was rather firm at the opening but weakened and declined, yielding from 120 to 119⅝ on extreme quotations, with the bulk of transactions at 119¾ to 119⅝. Speculation in the Gold Room is again on the wane, despite the Cuban belligerency question, and the few operators who attempt to "bull" the market soon gave up the effort in despair. The chief fluctuations were as follows:

10 A. M.	120	2 P. M.	119¾
11:35 A. M.	119⅞	3 P. M.	119⅝
11 A. M.	119⅞	4 P. M.	119⅝
12 M.	119⅝	5:30 P. M.	119⅝ a 119¾
1 P. M.	119⅝

Holders of gold had their balances carried at rates ranging from four to six per cent. The operations of the Gold Exchange Bank were as follows:—

Gold cleared	$21,078,000
Gold balances	1,041,231
Currency balances	1,231,434

THE MONEY MARKET

was without essential change, except perhaps a little better demand among the stock houses at six per cent, owing to the increased volume of business at the Stock Exchange. The supply was fully up to the demand, however, and rates on extreme quotations ranged from four to six per cent, the former figure being quite general among the leading government dealers. Commercial paper was steady and in demand at from six to seven per cent. Foreign exchange was irregular, and the prime bankers still disagree as to rates, the majority asking 109 for sixty day sterling, and one leading house 108⅞. Good bankers' was quoted at 108¾. Sight bills ranged from 109¼ to 109½.

STOCKS STRONG—ERIE ACTIVE.

The stock market was again strong and in most of the list buoyant and active. The exceptions were Reading, which declined to 97¾ and reacted to 98⅛, the fall having been too rapid for those members of the clique who had not put out a line of short sales. The other exceptions were the Western railways, which were heavy under decreased earnings, Chicago and Northwestern showing a falling off of $11,913 for the second week in February as compared with the corresponding period in 1869. The common stock of the road just mentioned declined to 71 and the preferred to 90¾. Lake Shore receded to 89. As the present campaign is universally acknowledged to be a "bull" one, it indicates the caution begotten of last September's panic, when the public make a discrimination against lines whose earnings are decreasing while their directors are overissuing stock and borrowing money to declare dividends. The latest movement is in Erie and the Vanderbilt securities. The latter were the feature of earlier transactions, and were advanced about one and a quarter per cent for the Central stock and scrip and about one and a half per cent for Harlem. The upward turn in Erie was quite sharp on the report that the trustees of the English shareholders had arrived, and that a bill was before the Legislature to repeal the perpetual directors' bill of last year. It so frightened the "shorts" that in covering some of them paid as high as 29¼ for the stock. The advance brought out free sellers, and the price eventually declined again to 26⅞. In the miscellaneous shares Pacific Mail was strongly active and advanced to 44¼, but here gave way with the softening of the market, brought about by the decline in the Western railways and upon realizations by some large holders desirous of making the profit of the rise which the stock has recently made. The following were the closing prices of stocks at the last session of the Stock Exchange:—Canton, 58 a 59¼; Cumberland, 33¾ a 34¾; Western Union, 34¾ a 35⅛; Quicksilver, 13¾ a 14½; Mariposa, 10; do. preferred, 20¾ a 21; do. certificates, 49 a 51; Pacific Mail, 43¾ a 43⅞; Boston Water Power, 16½ a 17¾; Adams Express, 62 a 62¼; Wells-Fargo Express, 20½ a 20¾; American Express, 37⅝ a 37¾; United States Express, 50¾ bid; Merchants' Union, 8½ bid; New York Central consolidated, 98⅛ a 98⅜; do. scrip, 96⅞ a 96⅞; Harlem, 147⅞ a 148; Erie, 25⅞ a 26; Reading, 98⅛ a 98⅜; Michigan Central, 120 a 122; Lake Shore, 89⅞ a 89⅝; Illinois Central, 142½ a 143½; Cleveland and Pittsburg, 102½ bid; Chicago and Northwestern, 74⅞ a 74¼; do. preferred, 91¼ a 91⅞; Cleveland, Columbus and Cincinnati, 74 a 74½; Rock Island, 123 a 123⅛; Milwaukee and St. Paul, 67⅞ a 67⅞; do. preferred, 81⅞ a 82; Toledo and Wabash, 47⅜ a 47⅝; Fort Wayne, 92 a 92⅛; Alton and Terre Haute, 32 a 32½; do. preferred, 61⅞ a 62; Delaware and Lackawanna, 105 a 105½; New Jersey Central, 100 a 100½; Chicago and Alton, 116 a 118½; do. preferred, 116 bid; Morris and Essex, 86⅝ a 86⅞; Hannibal and St. Joseph, 106 a 108; Dubuque and Sioux City, 109⅝ a 111; Columbus, Chicago and Indiana Central, 20⅝ a 20⅞.

GOVERNMENTS LOWER.

The government market sympathized with the lower fluctuation in gold and was hammered by the bears, who circulated a canard to the effect that as the government needed $23,000,000 (!) next month to pay pensions Mr. Boutwell would be under the necessity of discontinuing his bond purchases. In the same way a story was circulated that gold had been secretly sold through the Sub-Treasury, the only foundation for it being an order to certain banking houses to take up deposits of bullion left by them at the Assay Office, on which advances of money had been made, contrary to recent interpretation of the power of the officials in charge of that branch of the public service. The following were the closing street prices for the government list:—United States currency sixes, 111¼ a 111½; do. sixes, 1881, registered, 117⅝ a 118; do. do., coupon, 117⅞ a 118; do. five-twenties, registered, May and November, 114⅛ a 114⅜; do. do., 1862, coupon, do., 114⅞ a 115; do. do., 1864, do. do., 114⅛ a 114⅜; do. do., 1865, do. do., 114⅛ a 114⅜; do. do., registered, January and July, 113⅛ a 113⅜; do. do., 1865, coupon, do., 113⅛ a 113⅜; do. do., 1867, do. do., 113⅜ a 113⅝; do. do., 1868, do. do., 113⅝ a 113⅞; do. ten-forties, registered, 109⅛ a 109⅜; do. do., coupon, 112⅛ a 112¼.

THE SOUTHERN STATE BONDS.

In Southern securities the new Tennessees continued weak and declined to 49, the old bonds being steady. The Virginias were without special feature. A letter from Richmond intimates it as very probable that the State will fund the interest of the current year and begin, on and after July 1, 1871, to pay the coupons regularly in cash. North Carolinas were heavy in the old bonds and steady in the new. The Louisianas were active and strong, with a good demand on domestic and foreign account. The South Carolinas were dull.

THE CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO RAILROAD.

The financial agents of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad announce that the first mortgage bonds of their line will be ready on and after to-morrow for disposal to the public.

The woman had been suffering from acute pain in the head, and sent her son to a drug store in Hudson City; but any one of the three powders he procured was too powerful. The woman expired at noon yesterday. An inquest will be held to-day.

FAL, Feb 1—There are several casks of petroleum oil coming ashore, which evidently have not been long in the water. The casks are painted blue and on some are the following numbers:—128, 29, 165, 179, 23, with the letters (as well as can be perceived) F E W I S E, each cask containing about 30 gallons. Several more can be seen from the shore, as well as a large quantity of wreck, supposed to be from a vessel which has foundered not far off.

QUEENSTOWN, Jan 31—During a heavy gale from the southward this morning the British ship Oracle, from San Francisco, dragged her anchors and collided with the ship Madras. The latter had her foreyard carried away and sustained other damage. The arbitrators decided that the Oracle was in fault and awarded £70 to cover damages.

TERCEIRA, Jan 19—The bark Jessie Campbell, (of Weymouth (NS), from NYork for Bristol (rosin), foundered Jan 4, lat 42 N, lon 30 W, the crew having barely time to take to the boats. One boat, with the master, second mate and two seamen, arrived at Graciosa on the 10th. The other boat, with the first mate and five seamen, disappeared in the darkness, and has not yet been heard of. The master states that a heavy sea struck the ship, breaking stanchions and sweeping decks, and that a shock was felt as if the vessel had struck on something solid below. (The J C, waterlogged and abandoned, was passed Jan 17, in lat 40 25 N, lon 26 31 W, by the True Blue, Parker, from Mauritius, arrived in the Thames.)

MISCELLANEOUS.

A.—HITCHCOCK'S HALF DIME MUSIC.

The cheap system of music in the United States and Canada was originated in the fall of 1868 by Benjamin W. Hitchcock, of the city of New York, and by great expense the Half Dime and Ten Cent or Dime Series have been introduced into nearly every household. Both these titles are claimed and owned under copyrights and as trade marks. Dealers as well as purchasers of music can, therefore, readily discriminate between the deserving enterprise which has inaugurated a valuable and cheap commodity, and the lack of moral honesty which has induced unscrupulous imitators to endeavor to profit by the advertising and labor of the author of these series.
